Nikah Rules & Regulations

- The nikkah ceremony must be conducted within the specified time frame. There will be an additional charge of $100 every 30 minutes if the nikkah runs longer than the time frame.
 - Each nikkah is allotted only one hour and a half; any time after that it will be a violation of the rules and you will be charged the $100 penalty every 30 minutes.
 - Activities should be halted as soon as the adhan is called and can resume after the salah is over.
 - All attendees must wear modest attire to maintain the sanctity of the masjid. Guests that are not dressed appropriately will be asked to wait outside the masjid. Please also display proper etiquette in the masjid.
 - Only the masjid management team will setup for the Nikah; there are no additional setup items allowed inside the prayer hall, including decor or flowers. You cannot add more chairs than you have paid for. You will forfeit your deposit if you do so.
 - The divider between the men and women must remain in the middle and cannot be removed by the family. In the event that you do remove the divider, the nikkah will come to a halt and ladies will be asked to move to the ladies area.
 - No Photography/Videography will be allowed indoors nor outdoors within 30 minutes of Salah time.
 - No food or drinks are permitted inside the prayer hall under any circumstances.
 - No men are allowed in ladies prayer hall at all, or under any circumstances.
 - The reserving party will be responsible for any damage caused to the masjid. Any damage caused will result in extra fees.
 - Reserving party will be responsible for following all these rules.
 - Masjid needs to know the amount of people attending the nikkah. Attendees cannot exceed 200. If your guests are exceeding 200, the ladies need to move to the ladies' side. There also will be an additional charge after 100 attendees.
 - If clients or guests do not follow rules during the event, they will forfeit their $500 deposit/incidental.
- I understand all the rules and regulations on this form in the event that even one of these rules are not followed, I will forfeit my $500 deposit.
