Maryam Islamic Center

Nikkah Rules & Regulations

- The Nikah ceremony must be completed within the allotted time frame of 90 minutes. Any extension beyond this time will incur a penalty of $100 for every additional 30 minutes.
- Each Nikah is allowed a maximum duration of 90 minutes. Any time beyond this will result in a $100 penalty for every 30-minute overage.
- All activities must be halted when the adhan is called. Activities can resume only after the salah has been completed.
- All attendees are required to wear modest attire to maintain the sanctity of the masjid. Guests not dressed appropriately will be asked to wait outside. Proper etiquette must be always observed within the masjid.
- Only the masjid management team is authorized to handle the setup for the Nikah ceremony. No additional decor, flowers, or items are allowed in the prayer hall. Additionally, the number of chairs cannot exceed the quantity you have paid for. If you exceed the paid amount, your deposit will be forfeited.
- The divider between the men's and women's sections must always remain intact. If removed, the Nikah will be halted, and the ladies will be asked to move to the ladies' section.
- Photography and videography are prohibited both indoors and outdoors within 30 minutes of the prayer time.
- No food or drinks are permitted inside the prayer hall under any circumstances.
- Men are not permitted in the ladies' prayer hall at any time.
- The reserving party is responsible for any damage caused to the masjid property. Additional fees will apply for any damage caused.
- The reserving party is fully responsible for ensuring all rules and regulations are followed.
- The masjid can accommodate up to 150 attendees. If the guest count exceeds 150, the women must be seated in the ladies' section. There will also be an additional charge for guest lists exceeding 100 attendees.
- Failure to adhere to these rules will result in the forfeiture of your $500 deposit.
- By signing this document, you acknowledge and agree to all the terms and conditions outlined above. Any violation of these rules will result in the forfeiture of your $500 deposit.
